

A wide, calm river flows through the town of Gray, France. The water is clear and reflects the sky and the buildings along the banks. On the left, a stone quay runs along the river, with several buildings, including a prominent one with a red roof. Tall, thin trees line the bank. In the distance, more buildings and a church spire are visible under a clear blue sky.

Concours de pêche organisé par l'Union Grayloise des Pêcheurs de Concours le 29 mai 2022 sur les quais de Gray

Règlement FFPS -